GOOD PROGRAM
AT THE BUTLER
THIS EVENING

The management has provided a specially selected program, including three comedies: "Father and Son," Vitagraph; "Romance of a Dry Town," This is beyond question one of the best comedies ever produced into photo play and the Kalem people are to be complimented on their work in this picture. Not a dull moment in it. "Baby of the Boarding House," Essanay, a rollicking comedy.

The next big program booked is "Dante's Inferno" in five reels for next Thursday. Vision of a poet's dream of hell in all the greswomness connected therewith. Has been run for weeks in the best opera houses of the east at regular road show prices. Beyond any doubt this is the greatest picture ever produced.

Tomorrow's program will include in addition to the Heyman Sisters, the following program: "The Heir Apparent," "A Romance of the West," "How the Play Was Advertised" and "Nemesis."

TONOPAH BOY
MARRIED TODAY
AT BERKELEY

The many friends of R. E. ("Bob") Richard, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. George Richard, of the Richard Mercantile company, will be agreeably surprised to learn that he will take unto himself, this afternoon at 5 o'clock, a wife, in the city of Berkeley. The bride-to-be is Miss Edna R. Vergon, a popular member of the smart set of the University city. The groom is a Nevada-raised boy, having spent his boyhood days in Carson and Tonopah, and at the present time is the head bookkeeper of the Richard Mercantile company of this city. He is very popular among all of his acquaintances, and the lady who is to become his life's partner this afternoon, is spoken of by her acquaintances in this city as a charming girl. Tomorrow morning the newly-weds will leave Berkeley in an auto for the City of the Angels, and after visiting the pleasure resorts of Southern California, will auto to Tonopah, arriving here in about ten days. The Bonanza voices the congratulations of Tonopah people, and wishes the happy pair a life of happiness, and may their life's path always be strewn with fragrant flowers.

REVERT-MARETT
WEDDING HELD AT REDDING

The Courier-Free Press of Redding, Cal., has the following to say of the wedding of Miss Bessie Marett of Redding, and Paul Revert, manager of the Verdi Lumber company, at Tonopah, which was held in Redding, April 17:

"In one of the most elaborate home weddings seen in Redding for many a day, Miss Bessie Lois Marett last evening became the wife of Paul F. Revert, a young business man of Tonopah, Nev. The ceremony took place in the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Cora Marett, in the presence of nearly a hundred invited guests.

"The bride, who has grown from childhood to young womanhood in Redding, looked the embodiment of happiness in her simple bridal white. The gown was the work of her own fingers and was simply made of white marquisette, elaborated with a magnificent flounce of Duchesse point, also the work of her able fingers.

"The groom looked manly and radiant in the conventional black and was attended by Mr. Herbert G. Moody. The bridesmaid was Miss Dorothy Marett, young sister of the bride. The bride was given into the groom's keeping by her mother, Mrs. Cora Marett."

The Bonanza joins with the hosts of friends of the young couple in wishing them happiness in their new sphere of life.

GOVERNOR ODDIE'S TROUBLES;
HE HAS MADE ALL OF THEM

Governor Oddie seems to be having more difficulties than any man who ever occupied the office in Nevada. If it isn't one thing then it is another. Every step is trouble. Papers that defended him, that believed in his gasoline trip and boom are convinced that, like this rarified gas, he makes much noise, but when wanted he vaporizes.

His first month in office was very strenuous. The legislature handed him some packages that were never showed out to an executive before. He at times was so close to his advisor, Norcross, that it was impossible to see him without his secretary and dictator. It grew to be a huge joke, and is yet for that matter.

Then the state's wrecked treasury came about. It is not over yet, and the governor and his near governor came in for another grilling. The depletion of the public fund didn't call for an investigation, but a depletion of a less sum in the prison work ousted the governor's former friend, Baker. Since this last move on the part of Oddie the returns from the papers over the state are coming in. If the governor reads them he will find some very interesting comments by editors in general. They are not confined to the democratic journals, but the republican papers are handling the heavy end of the hot shot. They are to the point to say the least—Carson Appeal.

MILLMAN FALLS
RIGHT ANKLE

F. W. Smith, an employee of the Desert Power and Milling company at Millers, while at work yesterday morning, unloading a car of ore, fell through the trestle, a distance of 1 foot, to the ground, breaking his right ankle.

Smith was immediately placed under the care of a physician, who dressed the injury. Last night it was decided to place Smith in the Miners' hospital here and he was brought up on this morning's train. It will be several weeks before the break will be entirely healed and he can return to work.

"No, I'm not going to water the plants. That is a woman's job and you can do it or let 'em die."

"I'd give anything if I only knew how many times I've asked you to bring me home five-eighths of a yard of that inch and three-quarter ribbon, and you've not done it yet."

"Oh, you make me tired with all of your clack about not having time enough to cut the lawn. There isn't a man on the street who has the pie job you have got. You ought to be ashamed of yourself."
